

Aboriginal Cultural Cruise

Embark on a journey to discover the stories of the Eora, Gadigal, Guringai, Wangal, Gameraigal and Wallumedegal people. Come ashore on an island in Sydney Harbour for an authentic Aboriginal cultural performance. Learn the Aboriginal names and meanings of significant Sydney landmarks and uncover traditional fishing methods and food gathering techniques.

Includes

- Informative and entertaining commentary about significant Sydney landmarks and their Aboriginal names and history
- An Island visit. Clark Island is part of Sydney Harbour National Park
- Authentic Aboriginal cultural performance
- Tea/coffee
- Please note there are no bar facilities onboard

Departures

- Wednesday – Sunday from Eastern Pontoon, Circular Quay
- 02 October 2011 – 31 March 2012 3.00pm – 5.00pm
- 01 April 2012 – 30 September 2012 1.00pm – 3.00pm
- 01 October 2012 – 31 March 2013 3.00pm – 5.00pm

Retail Prices valid to 31 March 2013 (Tour Code SAB)

- Adults $60
- Concession $45
- Child (5-14yrs) $40

Cruise duration

2 hours

Boarding

Please arrive at departure point at least 30 minutes prior to departure.

Reservations & Enquiries

- Book Online www.tribalwarrior.org
- Phone (02) 9699 3491
- Email sales@tribalwarrior.org

Ask about our exclusive charters, tailored to your needs with a range of cultural experiences and catering options.

Things to remember

Tribal Warrior Cruise departs in all weather conditions, subject to minimum numbers. Please bring good walking shoes and an umbrella/raincoat for use on the island during wet weather. If your cruise is cancelled you may rebook another Tribal Warrior Cultural Cruise or a credit can be made towards any Tribal Warrior Cultural Cruise (subject to availability). We regret refunds are not available. Concession = Australian Pensioners & Senior Card Holders. Full time students (all nationalities).

Special prices and/or itineraries apply to special events.

Cruise operates subject to minimum numbers. Tribal Warrior reserves the right to change vessels, prices and itineraries without notice.